

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND SR. MANAGEMENT

I. Introduction

This Code of conduct is for the Board of Directors and the sr. management personnel (hereinafter referred to as “officers”) to maintain the standards of business conduct for the Company and ensure compliance with legal requirements. The code would deter wrong doing, promote ethical conduct and conduct business with values.

Ethical business conduct is critical to our business. Officers are expected to read and understand this code, uphold these standards in day to day activities and comply with all the policies and procedures. Nothing in this code creates or implies an employment contract or term of employment.

The code would be circulated to all the officers each year. All are requested to read, understand and agree to comply with the code.

II. Honest and ethical conduct

We expect all the officers to act in accordance with the highest standards of personal and professional integrity, honesty and ethical conduct while working for the Company. We consider honest conduct to be conduct that is free from fraud or deception. Ethical conduct means ethical handling of actual or apparent conflict of interest between personal and professional relationships.

III. Conflict of interest

Officers are duty bound to avoid and disclose actual and apparent conflict of interest. A conflict of interest exists where the interest or benefits of the officers conflict with the interest or benefits of the Company. Officers are prohibited from engaging in any activity that interferes with the performance or responsibilities to the Company or is otherwise in conflict with or prejudicial to the Company. Our policies prohibit officers from accepting simultaneous employment with suppliers, customers, developers or competitors of the Company. Officers must disclose to the company’s audit committee any interest that they have that may conflict with the business of the Company. Conflict of interest would also include accepting directorship in competing company. Investing in any customer, supplier, developer or competitor company the officer should take care to see that it does not compromise with the responsibilities to the Company. Under no circumstances officers may accept any offer, payment, gift or any thing of value from customers, vendors, consultants, etc that is perceived to influence any business decision. Inexpensive gifts, business meals, events and entertainment do not violate this policy. Gifts given by the Company to its suppliers, customers, or received from them should be accurately recorded. It is impractical to list all possible situation of conflict of interest. If a proposed transaction or situation raises any question of doubts, officer must consult the Company’s audit committee.
